

LEAD
THE WAY

NORTH GREENVILLE
UNIVERSITY

Christ Makes the Difference

PRESIDENT FANT

You're looking for more than a degree, more than a career, and more than a set of letters behind your name. For you, setting out on this journey to continue your education is about finding the right combination of experiences that will prepare you for making a real difference in the world for the rest of your life.

We understand, and we're here for you.

That's why at North Greenville University our genuine and caring faculty and staff members offer Christ-centered, real-world training that goes beyond featuring quality academic programs and also includes hands-on opportunities for spiritual growth and service.

We're here for people like you who dream of becoming the next generation of transformational leaders — not only in their field, but also in their church and in their community, too.

Becoming that kind of leader takes just one decision at a time, one step at a time. And we'd love for NGU to be your next step.

All the best,

Dr. Gene C. Fant, Jr.
President
North Greenville University

ABOUT NGU

You want to lead, and we want to help. At North Greenville University, our mission is to glorify God by cultivating graduates who are equipped to serve as transformational leaders for church and society. We provide Christ-centered, real-world training for people like you who dream of becoming the next trailblazers in their field — whether that's business, ministry, education, or medicine.

CORE VALUES

CHRIST-CENTERED
God's Son is our reason.

BIBLICALLY FAITHFUL
God's word is our standard.

ACADEMICALLY EXCELLENT
God's honor is our intent.

MISSION-FOCUSED
God's glory is our pursuit.

IT STARTS
HERE

This is just the first step. The moment of decision. It's only the beginning.

But you know something in your heart. You can feel it: you've come to this turning point in your life. Every step from here on will lead you farther along — closer and closer to your purpose, your calling, your impact on the world.

It's time to go. No turning back now. Lead the way.

THE PLACE FOR YOU

We get to where we're going when we leave the place we've been. Only then.

And these new places encourage us to grow, show us views we've never seen, stretch us to imagine the world as bigger than we did before.

They're waiting for you, to get away and find the you that's always been there, ready to be found. Keep your eyes open. This is the place for you.

LOCATION IS EVERYTHING

North Greenville University is located in the Greenville, SC, area — often noted as one of the best destinations in the whole U.S. Both NGU campuses are just a short drive away from some of South Carolina's most charming downtowns and most captivating outdoor adventures.

YOUR PURPOSE, UNCOVERED

Your passions are showing you the way, like an arrow pointing up ahead.

But when you pause, when you think back, they were always there. Even since you were young, you've loved making home videos for your family or "doing surgery" on your stuffed animals or reading late into the night, under the covers. You've felt a pull towards the same things you enjoy now.

Not a single one of those passions is a mistake or a waste. They're all part of you. They're all part of your path. And they'll help you discover your God-given purpose along the way.

NGU'S PROGRAMS

NGU offers a wide range of degree options at both the undergraduate and graduate level. That means you can discover how to combine your calling with career success in whichever field you choose — whether that's education or medicine, ministry or law.

THE PEOPLE BESIDE YOU

You're forging the path only you can forge. And yet, you're not alone. It's not all up to you.

Because there are people nearby who love you and want the best for you, who will walk beside you to guide you and mentor you and help you become who you're really meant to be. They make the journey sweeter.

You'll get there. We'll get there. Together.

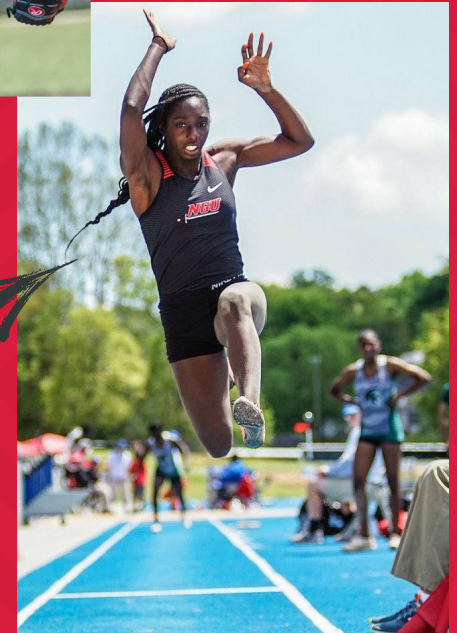

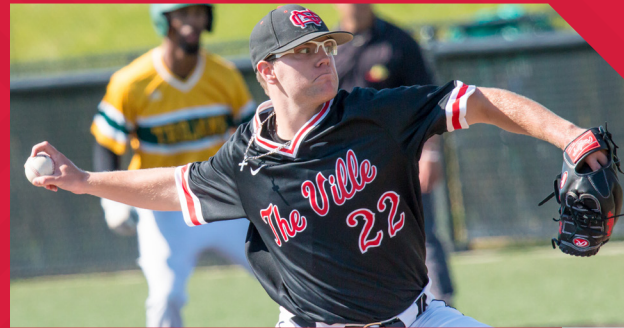

"At NGU, our faculty believe that interaction with our students, both in and out of the classroom, cultivates a healthy mentor-mentee relationship. We have seen these relationships positively impact our students for the rest of their lives. They see a model to follow, as we follow Jesus' model. Academic and professional training is important and something we do with excellence. But we also believe that spiritual, moral and social preparation is crucial for our future church, business, city, nation, and world leaders."

Dr. Victor Prieto | Chair of the Department of Modern Languages and Linguistics

NGU'S COMMUNITY

We keep class sizes small at NGU to encourage close relationships among the NGU family that extend beyond the classroom and even beyond graduation. Plus, the list of campus events and activities where you can make new friends and grow closer to old ones is ever expanding.

NEVER STOPPING

When you lead, you go first. So when the wind blows, it gets in your eyes. And the rain hits you most, and the branches scratch across your face.

Yes, the path is hardest for the one forging it.

But you never stop striving, pursuing, trailblazing. Because you remember, even in the middle, what it's all for: the days ahead.

NGU'S LEADERSHIP

NGU's mission is to empower you to lead. But we know the best way for you to learn how is to see leadership in action. That's why we're constantly seeking to improve the ways we prepare you for your future.

READY TO LEAD

DANIEL BLACKABY | CLASS OF 2010
AUTHOR, SPEAKER, AND INSTRUCTOR

"If aspiring writers are serious about chasing their dream, then I can't think of a better environment for them than the NGU English Department. The faculty in the English Department invested in my writing career from the start by volunteering time outside of class to read through my early manuscripts and providing constructive criticism. I'd always had a wild imagination, but my time at NGU . . . equipped me to finally get all my crazy ideas onto paper and provided a foundation I still rely on in my writing."
